Indictment in Child Death Case

25 year old Zachary Conway of Manchester has been indicted on a charge of Negligent Homicide in connection with the death of a child 2 years ago.

On October 7, 2019, Manchester Police responded to the Econo Lodge at 75 West Hancock Street for a 1 year old found unresponsive in a bathtub.

At the time of the incident, the child was in the care of Conway. The child was taken to a local hospital, but did not regain consciousness. The cause of death was determined to be drowning.

"This incident was very difficult for the Manchester Officers who first responded that day, as well as everyone involved in the case," says Chief Allen Aldenberg. "I want to recognize the time and unrelenting dedication put forth by the officers and detectives who have worked tirelessly to get justice for this young victim."

Negligent Homicide carries a maximum penalty of 10-30 years in the New Hampshire State Prison and a $4000 fine. Conway is being held in another state on unrelated charges.
